

Leadership & Team Building

Managers manage people, and those Managers who lead inspirationally will get the best from them!

Who would benefit from attending?

Managers who feel they can improve the performances of their people, by stepping up to the plate with more vision, creativity and motivation.

Course Objectives

To learn Leadership skills that will hugely improve their Managerial experience and expertise.

To initiate effective team building programmes and be able to support, coach and inspire.

Course Content

- Leaders: Tyrants, followers, passives, sheep, assertives or inspirers? Some examples too. Does it matter what they are, so long as it gets the job done? Oh yes!!!
- What Leaders do. What essential skills do you need?
- Booted and suited or rolling your sleeves up?
- How to analyse your own style of Leadership and determine how it will affect your team.
- How to motivate, build confidence, enthusiasm and self-belief in your team, and create a vision you can all share in.
- How to get commitment from your people, empower them to grow and develop a win-win culture.
- How to handle trouble in your team.
- How to work on a continuous culture of win-win.
- How to continue your personal development so that you're always ahead of the game.
- How to totally communicate, and be excellent when giving feedback.
- How not to lose sight of your goals and what you started out to be.

Key Benefits

1. Meaningful role-plays
2. Expertise you can take with you and use straight away
3. Back-up refresher notes that are easy to follow
4. Training at your own premises. Or open scheduled courses.

